Tom's report

It is the end of term and Tom's parents have just received their son's school report in the post today and they are very disappointed with him. Tom's report showed he got four F's on his report. One F is in math and the others in English, biology and chemistry. Tom's teacher, Mrs. Robinson, wrote a note and asked Tom's parents to meet with her for a Teacher-parent conference. In previous years, he used to get very good grades, but lately he's been spending more time with his friends, playing on with the playstation and less time studying and doing his homework. On many occasions, he has copied his friend Joe's homework just before going into class. Sometimes, he just does not turn up at school! Now, he is worried how his parents will react to his lasted report.

A huntsman passing by the house heard the noise, came in and cut open the wolf's belly. Poor girl and her grandma jumped out. The wolf died.

He wore grandma's clothes and slipped into her bed. When Little Red Riding Hood arrived she found the door open.

She left home, entered the woods. Then she met a wolf on her way. The wolf asked her and learned where her grandmother lived.

Little Red Riding Hood's mother told her to take a basket filled with bread, butter, cake and berries to her sick grandmother.

She went in and went to the bedroom, but her grandma looked strange. She asked some questions about her strange appearance.

The wolf told the little girl that it was a good idea to pick some flowers for her grandmother. She agreed and started picking them.

After some questions the wolf jumped off the bed and ate her whole. Then he went back into the Grandma's bed and fell asleep snoring loudly.

The wolf rushed straight to the grandma's house and entered the house disguising his voice. Then he ate the grandma whole.

Come and explore an underwater world at City Aquarium! There are hundreds of amazing sea creatures for you to see!

Sharks

Sharks have lived in our oceans for over 400 million years. Some sharks are big, some are very small and some are very scary! Don't miss the sharks' feeding time at 3 p.m. Every day in our shark zone.

Penguins

Most penguins are from the southern hemisphere, and some of them live in one of the coldest places on Earth: Antarctica. Watch our playful penguins dive and swim in the icy waters of our penguin zone!

Turtles

Turtles have been on planet Earth for over 200 million years. But today some species of sea turtle are endangered, because of hunters, fishing nets or plastic in the ocean. Come and see these beautiful creatures in our turtle zone.

Coral reef

Coral isn't a plant or a rock – it's a type of animal! Coral reefs are home to many species of tropical fish. Sharks, lobsters and turtles live here too. Discover this wonderful world in our coral reef zone

Incredible sea creatures

There are so many other incredible sea creatures to discover at the City Aquarium, including octopuses, jellyfish, seahorses and starfish. Which is your favourite?

Percy the Pirate

Many, many years ago Percy the pirate had a big ship called "Storm of the Seven Seas". He attacked other ships and captured them. Then he took all their money, gold and silver which they had on board. Quickly he sailed away and nobody could catch him and his crew. He got more and more money and jewels and diamonds. So he had to find a place where he could hide his big treasure. He was sailing across the seas for days and weeks to find a good hiding place.

Then, one day he saw an island. It was grey and there were lots of rocks. When he came nearer, he knew there were no people and no animals. He said "That's a good hiding place for my treasure". He climbed with his crew out of his ship and carried the bags on to land. They walked up a path and passed a very old tree. Then they turned left. After a few minutes they came to a small river and crossed it. They climbed up a hill. Suddenly they saw a small cave. They put all the bags in there. Percy thought that it was the best hiding place for his treasure. Then they went back to their ship.

On their way back home they got into a very bad storm. All the other pirates died in the sea. Percy survived and could save his treasure map.

But now Percy is too old to go back to his treasure and get it. He still has got his treasure map. Who will find Who will find Percy's treasure one day?

My favorite food

Hello. My name is Sarah. I'm twelve years old and I live in London. I have a big family: I live with my parents and my twin sisters Jane and Sue. Everybody thinks we have the traditional English breakfast: fried bread, sausages, bacon and eggs, tomatoes, baked beans and mushrooms...ah ah! But there is no time, of course! We usually have a glass of milk with bread and butter or cereals like corn flakes. I prefer my cereals with yoghurt. I have a snack in the morning: always a piece of fruit.

I have lunch at about one o'clock. My favourite food is spaghetti with meat balls and a fresh glass of orange juice. I don't like rice. For dessert I love vanilla ice cream. Yummy! In the afternoon I normally eat a cheese sandwich. At about half past eight we have dinner. We always eat soup. I like vegetable soup very much. We often have fish and salad. After dinner we like to watch "Matilda Ramsay" or "MasterChef" on TV. Before I go to bed, I like to drink hot chocolate. My parents prefer drinking tea.

1- What do they have for breakfast?

2- Does she have a hot dog in the morning?

3- What time does she have lunch?

4- What is her favourite food?

5- Do they watch "Britain's Got Talent" after dinner?

Hi! I'm Sonya Lampson and I'm thirteen years old. I live in Quebec with my parents, two little brothers, Peter and Mike, and a clever dog Blacky. We are very friendly.

The city we live in is beautiful indeed. In winter it often snows and the streets and houses are covered with snow. The temperature often falls more than thirty degrees below zero. When the temperature is lower than thirty-five degrees below zero we don't go to school. The frost bites our cheeks. It is very, very cold! Sometimes there are heavy snowstorms and you can't see anything. There are often very cold winds and it is difficult to stay in the streets for a long time. That's why we wear warm coats, woolen hats, mittens, leather boots, and scarves not to freeze.

But I like winter when the weather it isn't very cold. Then we go outdoors, make snowmen, play snowballs, ski, skate or snowboard. My brothers like to sledge from the hill. As for me, I adore figure skating. But sometimes I envy people living in warm countries.

We will be flying in the 1st of April, 2022 and we will arrive there at the evening. The last time we travelled was on 2019. But due to the pandemic, restrictions and lockdowns, we weren't able to travel anywhere. My wife wants to go at the summer, but I think Dubai is too hot on summer. In the first few days, I just want to take things easy and do the things I enjoy doing. On the mornings, we would like to walk around the shopping centres. On noon, we will be having lunch at different restaurants. On the afternoons, I am planning on going out for walks with my wife to explore new places, followed by eating out on the evenings and may be go to the cinema or go somewhere interesting in night. If we are lucky, I hope to go on a camel ride in dawn and watch the day start. Back on the nineties, my father rode a camel in midday, when he first started working in Dubai and got badly sunburned. Until then, in the weekends, especially in Sunday, my wife is hoping to get most of my shopping done, because I am going to be busy working.

Dining Out

By Bruce Newhart

Pete's Place has just reopened under new management. The dining room looks bigger, more bright and prettier as the old one. Although the food isn't better, it is just as good. The menu is more varied and less expensiver. Try one of their pasta dishes. You won't find a more fresher tomato sauce in town. And leave room for dessert. They just keep getting good and better.

The waiters are friendly but not able to handle large numbers of people_the crowded the restaurant, the slower the service. At dinner time, the queues outside this popular restaurant are getting longer and more long. Try lunchtime for quieter and relaxed meal.

A lady named Heidi worked for many years as a psychotherapist and teacher in Germany. Like most people around her, she spent most of her time working and earning money in order to buy the things she needed - and things she didn't really need. As a psychotherapist she met many who were depressed and frustrated, over-worked and earning money to start with an exchange circle, where people felt useful and worthy, and also appreciated the social aspect. After a while, Heidi came in contact with the idea of exchanging food and the word about a place to live. She wrote a book about her way of life, and she has lived without money for 12 years, and claims she has never felt so free. Heidi got the idea based on the relationship of the acquaintances, took care of their houses and consumption. At first she stayed with friends and in return she received food and a word about a place to live. She wrote a book about her lifestyle has spread. Today, she has lived without money for 12 years, and claims she has never felt so free.

Ben's day in the mountains

My name's Ben. I live in a town with my dad, mum and our dog, Sam. Last holiday, we went to see my grandparents. I love going to see them because they live in the mountains. One day, Dad, Mum and I wanted to climb a mountain. 'You must wear strong shoes.' Grandpa said. 'And you must take a map,' said Grandma and she gave me one. 'And we must take a picnic,' said Dad.

We started climbing. It was sunny. Sam was very happy. He ran in front of us. It was very beautiful at the top of the mountain. Mum sat on a rock and looked at the map. Dad took some pictures of us.

We had our picnic, then I played in a waterfall and Sam tried to catch rabbits. 'Stop, Sam!' I said. 'You mustn't run after rabbits.' When we started walking down the mountains, Dad said, 'Look at those black clouds!' It started raining.

'I can't see,' I said. I was afraid. 'It's OK,' said Dad. 'We've got Sam with us. He can help us.' Dad was right. Sam walked in front of us and found my grandparents' house again.

We had a hot dinner and I gave Sam his favourite food. 'Thank you, Sam,' I said. 'You've a very good dog.'

I have lived here beside the Loch Ness since I retired last year. My house has a good, clear view of the loch. In fact, it's only about a hundred metres from the lake, and there is nothing but the road in between. Now I've never been interested in the Loch Ness monster, you understand. Until last Tuesday, I thought it was just a good story to attract tourists. But I've had to change my mind after last Tuesday's experience.

I got up as usual at about 7 and went into my garden. Something attracted my attention to the loch. There was almost no mist that morning, and I could see there was something moving quite fast, going north, in the middle of the loch. It looked like a giant snake, with its head and part of its body above water. It was about thirty metres long. I rushed into the house to get my camera, but when I was back it had gone.

I waited and it appeared again, this time nearer the road and my house. I could see it clearly. I managed to take several photographs of it. They haven't come out very well, unfortunately, but one or two of them show the creature quite clearly. At one point it swam straight towards me, but then a lorry passed on the road and perhaps it heard the noise of the engine because it disappeared again. I reckon the whole incident lasted for about fifteen minutes, because I looked at my watch the last time I saw it, and it said a quarter past seven. I've never seen anything so strange in my life.
